

Anna-Lia Meyer

Associate, Litigation Department
annaliameyer@paulhastings.com

Anna-Lia Meyer is an associate in the Litigation practice and is based in the firm's Brussels office. She is part of the global Antitrust and Competition team of Paul Hastings.

Her practice focuses on the whole of EU and French competition/antitrust law in its advisory and litigation aspects, as well as on multi-jurisdictional merger control cases before competition authorities throughout the world. Prior to joining Paul Hastings, she trained at the Directorate General for Competition of the European Commission (DG COMP) in Brussels and with several major international law firms in Brussels and Paris.

Ms. Meyer is a graduate of Sciences Po Strasbourg (France) where she obtained a Master in Economic and Regulation Law in Europe, as well as a master's degree in Public Administration. She also holds an LL.M degree in European Law, with a specialization in Economic Law and Economic Analysis (ELEA) from the College of Europe (Belgium).

She is admitted to the Paris Bar and is a member of the Brussels Bar (E-list). In addition to her native French, Ms. Meyer is fluent in English, as well as conversant in German.
