Associate, Litigation Department
jessicamontes@paulhastings.com

Jessica Montes is an associate in the Litigation practice of Paul Hastings and is based in the firm's New York office. Her practice focuses on internal and government investigations, white collar defense, and compliance counseling, with an emphasis on the life sciences industry, fraud and abuse, and anti-bribery and anti-corruption.

Ms. Montes has extensive experience counseling life sciences companies across a variety of areas, including interactions and engagements with healthcare professionals and government officials, patient support and patient assistance programs, clinical trials, third party relationships, and domestic sales and marketing practices. Ms. Montes has also conducted risk assessments and proactive reviews and developed compliance programs for life sciences clients, including as a secondee at a multinational rare disease company.

Ms. Montes received her law degree from Columbia Law School, where she served on the Columbia Journal of Gender and Law. She earned Bachelor of Arts degrees in Political Science and International Studies from the University of California, Irvine, where she graduated with honors. Ms. Montes is admitted to practice law in New York.
