

Amanda L Pober

Associate, Litigation Department
amandapober@paulhastings.com

Amanda Pober is an associate in the Litigation practice of Paul Hastings and is based in the firm's New York office. Her practice focuses on all aspects of commercial litigation and white collar and government investigations. Ms. Pober has represented individuals and corporations in internal and government investigations and proceedings involving allegations of securities fraud, insider trading, market manipulation and violations of the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act. She has also represented clients in complex commercial matters, contractual and tort disputes and trademark infringement actions. Ms. Pober has significant experience with e-discovery issues, having managed the preservation, collection, review and production of documents in multiple significant matters. Ms. Pober received her law degree from The George Washington University Law School (with high honors, Order of the Coif) in 2011, where she was a member of The George Washington Law Review and the GW Law Moot Court Board. She received her B.A. in Criminal Justice (summa cum laude) from The George Washington University in 2008. Ms. Pober is admitted to practice law in New York.

New York

T: 1(212) 318-6221
F: 1(212) 319-4090

Practice Areas

Litigation

Admissions

New York Bar

Education

The George Washington
University Law School, J.D.
2011
The George Washington
University, B.A. 2008

Insights

April 03, 2020

PH COVID-19 Client Alert Series: Remote Technology Issues During COVID-19 Crisis Pose Heightened Insider Trading Risks

March 27, 2020

PH COVID-19 Client Alert Series: Review of Internal Controls Especially Important as the SEC Indicates Increased Scrutiny of Potential Insider Trading During COVID-19 Crisis

November 21, 2019

The SEC Clears the Path for Investors as Potential Whistleblowers: Greater

Amanda L Pober (Continued)

Scrutiny May Be on the Horizon During Regulatory Examinations

July 22, 2019

Post-Cyan Update – New York State Decisions Shed Light on Approach to Securities Act Claims

November 12, 2014

Here We Go Again—The U.S. Government Brings Home Another FCPA Case
Against a Life Sciences Company