

Derek J. Turnbull

Associate, Litigation Department
derekturnbull@paulhastings.com

Derek Turnbull is an associate in the Litigation practice and is based in the firm's Washington, D.C. office. His practice focuses on matters in white collar defense, primarily the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and U.S. sanctions regulations.

Mr. Turnbull has worked on corruption- and sanctions-related internal investigations for large multinational corporations, investigated financial fraud in a mid-sized domestic firm, and contributed advice to clients on the rapidly evolving sanctions frameworks against Russia and Iran.

Mr. Turnbull received his law degree from the University of Michigan Law School in 2016, where he was an associate editor of the Michigan Journal of International Law. He has previously lived and worked in China and Israel. He is admitted to practice law in the District of Columbia and New York.
