

Greg Nitzkowski

Managing Partner

gregnitzkowski@paulhastings.com

Greg Nitzkowski is one of the Managing Partners of Paul Hastings. Prior to becoming Managing Partner in 1999, he was a Partner in the firm's Real Estate department and focused his practice on complex commercial real estate transactions, including equity investments, real estate-related lending, and secondary market transactions (including securitizations and whole loan sales).

Professional and Community Involvement

- Admitted to practice in California
- Member of the UCLA Law School Advisory Board
- Advisory Board member of the Lowell Milken Institute for Business and Law Policy at UCLA School of Law

Education

- University of California at Los Angeles, J.D., 1984
- Harvard University, A.B., 1979

News

February 15, 2017

General Counsel Use Purchasing Power to Spur Greater Diversity and Inclusion at Law Firms, According to Paul Hastings/GC Magazine Report

November 16, 2016

Implicit/Unconscious Bias is Main Obstacle to Advancing Diversity and Inclusion at Law Firms According to Paul Hastings Bloomberg Big Law Business Report

August 31, 2015

Paul Hastings Scores #1 on The American Lawyer's Midlevel Associate Survey

November 29, 2012

Los Angeles

T: 1(213) 683-6180

F: 1(213) 683-5942

Admissions

California Bar

Languages

Spanish

Education

Harvard University, A.B. 1979

UCLA School of Law, J.D.

1984

Greg Nitzkowski (Continued)

Financial Times Recognizes Paul Hastings as Third Top Innovative Law Firm of 2012

April 23, 2012

Paul Hastings Announces Opening of Houston Office and Addition of Leading Energy-Focused Transactional Partners

Rankings & Awards

July 31, 2017

Ranked a Top 5 Firm in Vault/MCCA's Annual Law Firm Diversity Survey