

Meagan E Griffin

Associate, Corporate Department
meagangriffin@paulhastings.com

Meagan Griffin is an associate in the Corporate practice of Paul Hastings and is based in the firm's Atlanta office. Her practice is focused on the representation of bank and non-bank financial institutions, financial services and financial technology companies, payment networks, and investment firms on transactional and regulatory issues in all areas related to the provision of payments.

She has advised clients on issues related to global product development, enforcement actions, and regulatory compliance, as well as acquisitions, investments, and commercial arrangements between parties in the global payments space. She regularly counsels clients on compliance with federal and state law applicable to electronic payments, mobile payments, virtual currencies, and prepaid access, including state and federal money transmission laws and licensing regimes, state and federal gift card laws, Regulation E, and the Bank Secrecy Act.

Ms. Griffin received her J.D. from the University of Virginia School of Law, where she served as the senior development editor for the Virginia Law & Business Review. She graduated, with honors, from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 2007 with a degree in Political Science.

Insights

October 06, 2016

Money Transmitters Face New Requirements under Proposed New York Cybersecurity Rule

Atlanta

T: 1(404) 815-2240
F: 1(404) 685-5240

Practice Areas

Fintech and Payments
Bank Regulatory
Payment Systems
Corporate

Admissions

Georgia Bar

Education

University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, B.A. 2007
University of Virginia, School of Law, J.D. 2013