

Claire M Blakey

Associate, Litigation Department

claireblakey@paulhastings.com

Claire Blakey is joining us as an associate in the Litigation Department with a focus in data privacy and cybersecurity. Before joining Paul Hastings, Claire worked for Steptoe & Johnson LLP for three years where she was an associate in the international group, working on a variety of international trade and regulatory matters in addition to advising clients on data privacy and cybersecurity law. Claire received her B.A. from Columbia University in 2009 and her J.D. from Columbia Law School in 2015. Claire speaks Spanish and French.

Washington, D.C.

T: 1(202) 551-1859

F: 1(202) 551-0359

Practice Areas

Privacy and Cybersecurity

Admissions

District of Columbia Bar

New York Bar

Languages

French

Spanish

Education

Columbia Law School, J.D.
2015

Columbia University, B.A.
2009

Professional and Community Involvement

- Member, International Association of Privacy Professionals

Education

- Columbia Law School, J.D., 2015 (Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar; Holthusen-Schindler Scholar)
- Columbia College, Columbia University, B.A. (cum laude), 2009
- Sciences Po, Diplôme du Programme International, 2009 [study abroad]

News

January 24, 2020

Moody's Corporation to Acquire Regulatory DataCorp

Insights

November 11, 2019

CCPA: My Business Isn't Based In California – Should I Be Taking Action?

September 16, 2019

CCPA Amendment Effort Largely Fizzles Out: Only Modest Changes Enacted

Claire M Blakey (Continued)

(But Employment Info Is Granted a Partial One-Year Reprieve)

September 10, 2019

The CCPA and COPPA: Looking for the “Betwixt and Between”