Victoria A. Cundiff is a partner at Paul Hastings resident in New York. She is a leader of the Litigation department's global Trade Secrets practice, which is ranked in "Tier 1" by Legal 500 and is regularly named a "Leading Lawyer" nationally in the field by Legal 500. See www.legal500.com for criteria. She helps clients acquire, protect and maximize value from intellectual property. Her clients include emerging companies, joint ventures and Fortune 50 companies in a variety of industries, including software, media, financial services, insurance, pharmaceutical, chemical, marketing, and sales and distribution organizations. Much of her work focuses on issues arising at the intersection of intellectual property and employment law, including avoiding the loss of trade secrets and other valuable assets when key employees move between competitors, analyzing and litigating restrictive covenant and intellectual property ownership disputes, and designing confidential investigation procedures and verification protocols for resolving intellectual property use and ownership disputes outside of court.

Ms. Cundiff has extensive litigation experience, particularly in seeking or opposing immediate injunctive relief. She has successfully tried or resolved trade secrets, inevitable disclosure, intellectual property ownership, copyright, licensing, and other intellectual property and commercial disputes in state and federal courts throughout the United States and before a variety of arbitration and mediation tribunals and coordinates multi-jurisdictional litigation. She writes extensively on intellectual property law issues, including "Preventing The Inevitable: How Thinking About What Might Happen Can Help Ensure That it Won't," "Reasonable Measures to Protect Trade Secrets in a Digital Environment," "Hiring Competitor's Employees: A Trade Secrets Perspective," and "How to Place Your Intellectual Property at Risk." She is a frequent speaker on the implications of recent IP developments. She has served as an instructor in programs sponsored by the USPTO on trade secrets law for, among others, representatives of the governments of a variety of US trading partners. She has contributed to amicus curiae briefs filed in the United States Supreme Court on
